

Phil Bonner

Bonner's "Daddy Warbucks" Ford was the epitome of match race drag racing in the 1960s. Bonner was a fan favorite in the southeast, and a winner on drag strips throughout the country. He was a master of the quarter-mile in an era before the "Christmas tree" at a drag strip. When Bonner's Fords would roll to the starting line, there was no doubt the fans were going to see a great race.
